Commitment	Girls who wish to play on the National team must be fully committed to attending every practice and all tournaments. They want to compete and train at the highest level and may have aspirations to play in college.	Girls who wish to play for the Regional program want to continue their training and compete in competitive tournaments. This program is open to athletes being multi-sport athletes and understands that they may have other high school athletic commitments to attend during the club season.	The Local program is similar to the Regional program for middle school aged athletes. They wish to continue learning and elevating their game so they can make their middle school team or move on and make the high school team in the future. This program is also open to multi-sport athletes.
